CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

WHEREAS: CLUB 20 recognizes that democracy works best when all sides are discussed and the public can analyze all points of view, and that in campaigns sometimes fund-raising prevents such even discussions, and

WHEREAS: Senator Tilman M. Bishop has succeeded in obtaining State Senate passage of a campaign finance reform measure in the current session of the General Assembly, recognizing that some limits are needed on the ability of special interests to influence the political process, and

WHEREAS: True campaign finance reform would enhance competitive elections and encourage better candidates to run for public office, and

WHEREAS: Another campaign finance reform measure may be on the general election ballot in Colorado this November,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that CLUB 20 recognizes the importance of campaign finance reform, and encourages Western Colorado voters to support reform.
